

Critical Reading and Writing

Develop logical and critical thinking skills in English through classroom and on-demand lessons

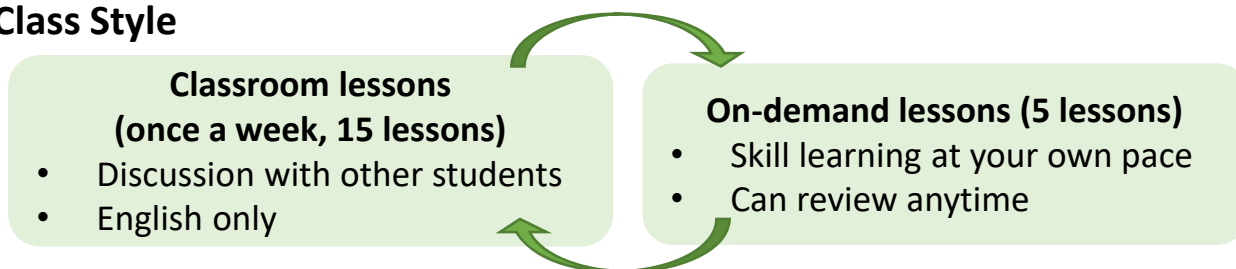

This course is for those who:

- Want to learn how to have in-depth discussions in English
- Want to prepare for classes taught in English overseas
- Want to keep up their English skills you already achieved during study abroad
- Want to learn how to think and speak logically

Merits of Critical Reading and Writing

- ✓ Small-sized class with up to 10 students per class
- ✓ Develop analytical and critical reading skills through reading argumentative essays and short stories
- ✓ Learn writing skills through on-demand lessons and receive tailor-made comments and feedback from English-speaking instructor
- ✓ A lot of discussion in the classroom to develop skills to speak clearly and persuasively

Class Style

2021 Courses (2 credits each)

Foundation: Fundamental logical thinking skills
Themes	Globalization, Following Tradition and Society
Writing assignment	• 1000 words essay (reasons, description, explanation)
Estimated English proficiency	TOEIC 600 ~ / TOEFL iBT 64 ~ GTE Intermediate or above / WeTEC 639 ~

Application: Practical logical and critical thinking skills
Themes	Freedom of Press: Advertising, Overpopulation
Writing assignment	• Article summaries x 4 • 2,000 words essay (Problem and solution)
Estimated English proficiency	TOEIC 730 ~ / TOEFL iBT 81 ~ GTE Pre-advanced and above / WeTEC 755 ~

2021 Timetable (as of February, 2021)

FDN: Foundation APP: Application

Spring		Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.
	2 nd period	APP01	APP02	APP03	—	—
	3 rd period	FDN01	FDN02	FDN03	—	—
Fall		Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.
	2 nd period	APP05	APP06	APP07	—	—
	3 rd period	FDN05	FDN06	FDN07	—	—

For details of the course:
<https://led.w-as.jp/gogaku/crw.html>

Course fee : 31,000 yen

Contact information
 Waseda University Academic Solutions Corporation (Bldg. 29, Room 601)
 Tel: 03-5286-8030 (Monday to Friday, 9:00-17:00)
 Email: eap@w-as.jp